Introducing Ada, our new Beacon Garden

Assistant/ASP Program Leader

Assistant!

Ada Steinberg (They/She) is a sustainable farmer, artist, farm-to-table devotee, and farmer-rights advocate originally from Oakland, CA. Over the past six years, Ada has worked on community-run regenerative urban farms and student-led organic rural farms. Their passion for the intersection of art and agriculture led them to organize a community participatory mural project at the University of California, Davis Student Farm (2024–2025), where they also served as Lead Student Farmer.

Raised in Brooklyn, NY, Ada began volunteering with GrowNYC and other urban community farms in high school. In 2020, they designed and built a rooftop garden in Brooklyn, NY, cultivating herbs and produce for their community and nearby neighborhoods. After earning a B.S. in International Agricultural Development from the University of California, Davis, Ada moved to San Francisco, CA. There, they bring their expertise to farmers' markets, volunteer at urban farms, and create nutritious meals using locally grown organic produce.

In addition to farming, Ada has worked as a shepherdess and poultry farmer, and has led foraging lessons and cooking lessons for youth. Their interests include crocheting, hiking, yoga, and creating tinctures and salves with medicinal herbs.

Asian PAC: Recruiting New Board Members

The Asian Parent Advisory Committee (Asian PAC) advocates for the diverse needs of Asian students and their families. We partner with SFUSD to ensure equity and excellence by strengthening inclusive and supportive environments where every student can thrive academically and holistically.

We are recruiting board members who support the Asian PAC's mission and are reflective of the diverse experiences of Asian students in SFUSD, including a range of school levels (i.e., pre-K, elementary, middle, or high school) and student needs (i.e., multilingual learner, special education). Board members must be parents/guardians/caregivers of actively enrolled students in SFUSD.
